

SMALL TOWN BIG DEAL
2015-2016 EPISODE SYNOPSIS

Episode #	Description
10102	For the rich and famous that live along the shores of Lake Geneva, Wisconsin they have a unique way of receiving their mail every summer-- by boat. Jann and Rodney try a little 'Mail Boat Jumping' and one of them takes an unexpected plunge! Then it's off to the Lumberjack World Championships. You won't believe the axe wielding, log running, and pole-climbing going on here!
10103	Day one over 80,000 oysters consumed! Near the northern tip of Cape Cod grow the famous Wellfleet Oysters and we are taking you to their annual festival. Rodney heads out to the bay before dawn to learn how to harvest the delicacy and both Jann and Rodney eat an oyster for the very first time. They'll also show you the Oyster Shuck-Off Championships and introduce you to the lucky winner.
10104	Rodney & Jann don waders to show you how cranberry harvesting is done the old fashioned way—and then the modern way...with helicopters! Then it's off to Nashville, Tennessee's most famous café and inside the kitchen where the biscuits are legendary. And then it's a night of amazing music at "Music City Roots" where you'll hear the next biggest stars perform
10205	Meet a man who is not only making beautiful things out of reclaimed wood but reclaiming lives in the process. It's truly inspiring. Then Rodney and Jann find out the power of red...tractors that is. Meet some of the most enthusiastic collectors around as they gather in Huron, SD. Finally.....not a castle or a mansion....but a palace made out of CORN! It's in a town that's all 'ears'...(SOrry we couldn't resist) See the huge murals made of ears of corn....$130,000 worth of a-maize-ing artwork that's created new every year!
10101	Just off the coast of Los Angeles is Catalina Island where stars like Marilyn Monroe and John Wayne once played. It's still a destination spot for people who come to see the island's flying fish and the buffalo -- we're not kidding! Jann and Rodney explore the unbelievable 'Casino' built by gum tycoon William Wrigley, zip line high above canyons and catch a glimpse of those fish that 'fly'!
10112	It really sounds like a movie script: No big rich owner, no big corporate entity possession. Nope, it's the ONLY town in the United States to own a major league professional sports team. Rodney and Jann lean how this team, the Green Bay Packers, came to be and how it continues to thrive – they hold a record number of national championship titles. And then...Calling all "cheeseheads"! Meet the man who invented the most iconic sports fan accessory. And not just sold to local fans but now around the world.

10114 The Mississippi River is the 4th longest river in the world and a hugely important commerce corridor. But for just one day a year -- the Army Corps of Engineers shut down all traffic. Rodney and Jann find out it's all for a riverbank rivalry of epic proportions. A massive rope stretches all the way across the mighty river for a Tug-of-War you've got to see to believe. Giving the winners blistered hands but bragging rights until the next battle.

10106 Henry Ford is known for transforming the automobile industry. But he also had a deep love for history and left behind an indoor/outdoor museum for all to see filled with amazing artifacts. Where else can you see the car President Kennedy was riding in when he was shot, the actual workshop of Thomas Edison, and ride in a historic Model T!? Jann & Rodney take you on an exploration of this gift left behind by Mr. Ford

10113 It's the film location of the beloved movie, 'Somewhere in Time', starring Christopher Reeve and Jane Seymour. And Mackinac Island really is a step back in time. There are NO cars allowed on the island! (Tough being the refrigerator deliveryman!) Jann & Rodney take you to the island's iconic Grand Hotel that Conde' Nast Traveler calls one of the "Best Places to Stay in the Whole World". It's a sight to behold. They'll also try to drive their own horse and buggy and help make some of the island's famous fudge.

10218 Rodney and Jann get a great surprise in Savannah, Georgia when Paul Deen gives them a private tour of her beloved city stopping traffic all along the way! Paula also takes Jann into her kitchen to try to instill a little cooking knowhow and Rodney gets some inside scoop on the southern celebrity chef from her husband Michael.

10219 It's safe to say that in recent decades the wooden canoe hit some rough waters. But it's hardly a sunken ship. In Atkinson, Maine, arguable the 'Canoe Capital of the World', there are two men who still build the wooden masterpieces by hand and will also repairs those in need. They are friends but there is some friendly competition. Then, Rodney and Jann travel to Hernando, MS to be completely amazed by a group of Chick-fil-A Leader Academy students. They aren't just raising awareness about an important subject but also raising money to help a family obtain a therapy dog. They call it, 'Pawsability'!

10120 Travis Roy was playing in his first University hockey game...his excitement was overwhelming. But only 11 seconds into his time on the ice he became a quadriplegic. You'll meet one man whose fields of dreams are helping Travis fulfill a new goal....one filled with hope and humanity. We'll also take you inside a living museum where Rodney 'attempts' to conquer the potter's wheel and we learn -- what exactly is an Ox?!?

10214 Get ready for a trip back in time. Visit a store chock full of products you thought were long gone. Jann heads to the bakery to make some of their famous 'button' cookies and Rodney just about maxes out his credit card. Then it's off to see how REAL maple syrup is made...will Jann's tree or Rodney's tree will bare the most sap? Finally, a family owned wooden toy company that truly feels like Santa's workshop!

10221 If you think you are starting to see double in this episode...don't worry...you're suppose to. It's the annual 'Twins Days' in None other that Twinsburg, Ohio! (We can't make this up!) Then see how America's pasttime is the key to creating better students in Harlem. They call is harlem RBI and they were winners of a Chick-fil-A True Inspiration Award.

10109 Keeping history alive is what the people at the "Root River Festival" do best! Rodney makes cedar shingles by hand, Jann attempts to spin wool...repeat attempts! (She calls hers 'designer yarn'.) They both help raise a huge barn with only muscle and rope, discover the art of hay bale tossing, and taste a sweet Norwegian snack. Throw in a runaway chicken and it's fun for the whole family!

10110 The Bronner Family has created nearly 30,000 square meters of a Christmas wonderland! Explore the store that welcomes more than 2-million visitors a year and watch Jann and Rodney try to make a 'wise man'. Does all that Christmas shopping creates an appetite?...no problem. We also take you into the kitchen of the local restaurant that serves up over a million chicken dinners a year!

10217 Ever wonder where all lost luggage ends up? In America, it's a small town in Alabama. Yep...thousands of items arrive from the airlines everyday and a million people a year visit and shop! You won't believe the items that Jann & Rodney find in the main building that is over 40,000 sq. feet. How exactly does one lose a 5.8-carat diamond ring, or a LIVE rattle snake?! Then meet a man who created a World Bird Sanctuary out of just a dream....Jann & Rodney get to feed an eagle and release a recovered hawk back into the wild. And meet a special group of Chick-fil-A High School Leader Academy students who are making it their duty to serve their community by harnessing rainwater: "Operation Protect our Waters!"

10121 Come along on the oldest and largest bike ride! Recreational cyclists from not just the U.S. but from many countries take this yearly journey across the entire state of Iowa. In fact, SO many people want to do it that officials now have to limit it to 8,500 and hold a lottery. Jann & Rodney take you along part of the route to meet some of the very unique riders (Team Spam!?) and partake in many small town activities along the way. Chicken Poop Bingo anyone?

10116 In the middle of nowhere is the Volo Car Museum & Collector Car dealer. You'll see cars from famous movies (Transformers), cars of famous people (Princess Diana) and cars that commemorate (The Elvis Car)...but they also sell classic cars: so far to folks in 45 countries! Jann & Rodney also take you to a unique farm that is the home and workplace of people with developmental disabilities. We promise your heart will be touched

10212 Ever wonder what it would be like to ‘mush’ a team of dogs? We will show you’re the ropes and take you along. Jann & Rodney get to take the reins – actually there are no reins – and travel through the snowy woods of Colorado. Then it’s off to one man’s really ‘cool’ sculpture big enough to walk through and find out how it grows every night. And finally, it’s not dinner and a movie....come along on a sleigh ride and supper show

10222 Dancing kites, gargantuan kites, hand-made kites and record breaking kites....it's a day on a beach in Oregon that is a sight to behold! Then, Jann and Rodney find a place where you can learn how to blow your own glass art. (Which one is the most full of hot air>!) And finally, a home building company that will provide homes for nothing down and no interest for 30 years?! Granting the wish of the American Dream to own your own home to deserving families is what the organization "First Story" and Hayden Homes is all about.

10115 Each country, town or village has a sport that the locals are crazy for...well in the small towns of Illinois it’s basketball. Jann finds out that Rodney had another life years ago as a basketball coach and he relives winning the state championship with the guys he coached. We also interview a legendary coach who just got hired at age 80 to head up a brand new team. And lastly, go on a memorial tractor drive that honors our loved ones...it’s a unique tradition

10123 Meet the family that was about to lose their entire dairy farm. Something drastic had to be done. In this modern world they went they went ‘retro’: Milk in glass bottles again. Oh, and crazy, enticing flavors; Root Beer Milk, Coffee Milk, Mint Milk...to name a few! Did we mention Cajun Cheese curds too? Then you will meet a man who beat the odds...with very little help (and a lot of blood sweat and maybe tears) he saved a historic military building and opened a premiere American Civil War museum

10223 Ever seen a 'cod fish carry'? Or perhaps the 'International Great Lobster Crate Race'?! Well, Jann & Rodney will show you it all at the annual Lobster Fest in Rockland, Maine. Then it's off to do some real Lobster fishing with a pro. Wonder who will catch the most...Rodney or Jann?! And finally, meet a man who is on a continuing mission to clean up a great American waterway, the Mighty Mississippi River. He recruits local volunteers, and together they remove tires, signs and all kinds of bizarre junk from the water.

10206 ‘Just may be the best hot fudge in this solar system or any other!’ In 1908 Angelo Lagomarcino, an immigrant from Northern Italy, founded his confectionery in a small American town and has been getting rave reviews like that one ever since! Learn alongside Rodney the old European art of ‘casting chocolate eggs’. Then, go inside Whitey’s Ice Cream where many industry innovations were born like the high-powered malt machine, candy bar milkshakes, and chocolate chip cookie dough ice cream.

10224 They've been inducted into the National Hall of Fame and have been a favorite building toy for nearly 100 years. Rodney and Jann celebrate the return of Lincoln Log manufacturing in America by visiting the company that makes them. Then, it's an insider's tour and some hands on help in a small but mighty guitar shop that would make any acoustic aficionado drool. And meet two college friends who are changing the lives of children by educating, engaging and empowering them! They were also winners of a Chick-fil-A Foundation's True Inspiration Award.

10102 For the rich and famous that live along the shores of Lake Geneva, Wisconsin they have a unique way of receiving their mail every summer-- by boat. Jann and Rodney try a little 'Mail Boat Jumping' and one of them takes an unexpected plunge! Then it's off to the Lumberjack World Championships. You won't believe the axe wielding, log running, and pole-climbing going on here!

10103 Day one over 80,000 oysters consumed! Near the northern tip of Cape Cod grow the famous Wellfleet Oysters and we are taking you to their annual festival. Rodney heads out to the bay before dawn to learn how to harvest the delicacy and both Jann and Rodney eat an oyster for the very first time. They'll also show you the Oyster Shuck-Off Championships and introduce you to the lucky winner.

10104 Rodney & Jann don waders to show you how cranberry harvesting is done the old fashioned way—and then the modern way...with helicopters! Then it's off to Nashville, Tennessee's most famous café and inside the kitchen where the biscuits are legendary. And then it's a night of amazing music at "Music City Roots" where you'll hear the next biggest stars perform

10205 Meet a man who is not only making beautiful things out of reclaimed wood but reclaiming lives in the process. It's truly inspiring. Then Rodney and Jann find out the power of red...tractors that is. Meet some of the most enthusiastic collectors around as they gather in Huron, SD. Finally.....not a castle or a mansion....but a palace made out of CORN! It's in a town that's all 'ears'...(SORRY we couldn't resist) See the huge murals made of ears of corn....$130,000 worth of a-maize-ing artwork that's created new every year!

10101 Just off the coast of Los Angeles is Catalina Island where stars like Marilyn Monroe and John Wayne once played. It's still a destination spot for people who come to see the island's flying fish and the buffalo -- we're not kidding! Jann and Rodney explore the unbelievable 'Casino' built by gum tycoon William Wrigley, zip line high above canyons and catch a glimpse of those fish that 'fly'!

10112 It really sounds like a movie script: No big rich owner, no big corporate entity possession. Nope, it's the ONLY town in the United States to own a major league professional sports team. Rodney and Jann learn how this team, the Green Bay Packers, came to be and how it continues to thrive – they hold a record number of national championship titles. And then...Calling all "cheeseheads"! Meet the man who invented the most iconic sports fan accessory. And not just sold to local fans but now around the world.

10114 The Mississippi River is the 4th longest river in the world and a hugely important commerce corridor. But for just one day a year -- the Army Corps of Engineers shut down all traffic. Rodney and Jann find out it's all for a riverbank rivalry of epic proportions. A massive rope stretches all the way across the mighty river for a Tug-of-War you've got to see to believe. Giving the winners blistered hands but bragging rights until the next battle.

10106 Henry Ford is known for transforming the automobile industry. But he also had a deep love for history and left behind an indoor/outdoor museum for all to see filled with amazing artifacts. Where else can you see the car President Kennedy was riding in when he was shot, the actual workshop of Thomas Edison, and ride in a historic Model T!? Jann & Rodney take you on an exploration of this gift left behind by Mr. Ford

10113 It's the film location of the beloved movie, 'Somewhere in Time', starring Christopher Reeve and Jane Seymour. And Mackinac Island really is a step back in time. There are NO cars allowed on the island! (Tough being the refrigerator deliveryman!) Jann & Rodney take you to the island's iconic Grand Hotel that Conde' Nast Traveler calls one of the "Best Places to Stay in the Whole World". It's a sight to behold. They'll also try to drive their own horse and buggy and help make some of the island's famous fudge.

10218 Rodney and Jann get a great surprise in Savannah, Georgia when Paul Deen gives them a private tour of her beloved city stopping traffic all along the way! Paula also takes Jann into her kitchen to try to instill a little cooking knowhow and Rodney gets some inside scoop on the southern celebrity chef from her husband Michael.

10219 It's safe to say that in recent decades the wooden canoe hit some rough waters. But it's hardly a sunken ship. In Atkinson, Maine, arguable the 'Canoe Capital of the World', there are two men who still build the wooden masterpieces by hand and will also repairs those in need. They are friends but there is some friendly competition. Then, Rodney and Jann travel to Hernando, MS to be completely amazed by a group of Chick-fil-A Leader Academy students. They aren't just raising awareness about an important subject but also raising money to help a family obtain a therapy dog. They call it, 'Pawsability'!

10120 Travis Roy was playing in his first University hockey game...his excitement was overwhelming. But only 11 seconds into his time on the ice he became a quadriplegic. You'll meet one man whose fields of dreams are helping Travis fulfill a new goal....one filled with hope and humanity. We'll also take you inside a living museum where Rodney 'attempts' to conquer the potter's wheel and we learn -- what exactly is an Ox?!?

10214 Get ready for a trip back in time. Visit a store chock full of products you thought were long gone. Jann heads to the bakery to make some of their famous 'button' cookies and Rodney just about maxes out his credit card. Then it's off to see how REAL maple syrup is made...will Jann's tree or Rodney's tree will bare the most sap? Finally, a family owned wooden toy company that truly feels like Santa's workshop!

10221 If you think you are starting to see double in this episode...don't worry...you're suppose to. It's the annual 'Twins Days' in None other that Twinsburg, Ohio! (We can't make this up!) Then see how America's pasttime is the key to creating better students in Harlem. They call is harlem RBI and they were winners of a Chick-fil-A True Inspiration Award.

10109 Keeping history alive is what the people at the "Root River Festival" do best! Rodney makes cedar shingles by hand, Jann attempts to spin wool...repeat attempts! (She calls hers 'designer yarn'.) They both help raise a huge barn with only muscle and rope, discover the art of hay bale tossing, and taste a sweet Norwegian snack. Throw in a runaway chicken and it's fun for the whole family!

10110 The Bronner Family has created nearly 30,000 square meters of a Christmas wonderland! Explore the store that welcomes more than 2-million visitors a year and watch Jann and Rodney try to make a 'wise man'. Does all that Christmas shopping creates an appetite?...no problem. We also take you into the kitchen of the local restaurant that serves up over a million chicken dinners a year!

10217 Ever wonder where all lost luggage ends up? In America, it's a small town in Alabama. Yep...thousands of items arrive from the airlines everyday and a million people a year visit and shop! You won't believe the items that Jann & Rodney find in the main building that is over 40,000 sq. feet. How exactly does one lose a 5.8-carat diamond ring, or a LIVE rattle snake?! Then meet a man who created a World Bird Sanctuary out of just a dream....Jann & Rodney get to feed an eagle and release a recovered hawk back into the wild. And meet a special group of Chick-fil-A High School Leader Academy students who are making it their duty to serve their community by harnessing rainwater: "Operation Protect our Waters!"

10121 Come along on the oldest and largest bike ride! Recreational cyclists from not just the U.S. but from many countries take this yearly journey across the entire state of Iowa. In fact, SO many people want to do it that officials now have to limit it to 8,500 and hold a lottery. Jann & Rodney take you along part of the route to meet some of the very unique riders (Team Spam!?) and partake in many small town activities along the way. Chicken Poop Bingo anyone?

10116 In the middle of nowhere is the Volo Car Museum & Collector Car dealer. You'll see cars from famous movies (Transformers), cars of famous people (Princess Diana) and cars that commemorate (The Elvis Car)...but they also sell classic cars: so far to folks in 45 countries! Jann & Rodney also take you to a unique farm that is the home and workplace of people with developmental disabilities. We promise your heart will be touched

10212 Ever wonder what it would be like to ‘mush’ a team of dogs? We will show you’re the ropes and take you along. Jann & Rodney get to take the reins – actually there are no reins – and travel through the snowy woods of Colorado. Then it’s off to one man’s really ‘cool’ sculpture big enough to walk through and find out how it grows every night. And finally, it’s not dinner and a movie....come along on a sleigh ride and supper show

10222 Dancing kites, gargantuan kites, hand-made kites and record breaking kites....it's a day on a beach in Oregon that is a sight to behold! Then, Jann and Rodney find a place where you can learn how to blow your own glass art. (Which one is the most full of hot air>!) And finally, a home building company that will provide homes for nothing down and no interest for 30 years?! Granting the wish of the American Dream to own your own home to deserving families is what the organization "First Story" and Hayden Homes is all about.

10115 Each country, town or village has a sport that the locals are crazy for...well in the small towns of Illinois it’s basketball. Jann finds out that Rodney had another life years ago as a basketball coach and he relives winning the state championship with the guys he coached. We also interview a legendary coach who just got hired at age 80 to head up a brand new team. And lastly, go on a memorial tractor drive that honors our loved ones...it’s a unique tradition

10123 Meet the family that was about to lose their entire dairy farm. Something drastic had to be done. In this modern world they went they went ‘retro’: Milk in glass bottles again. Oh, and crazy, enticing flavors; Root Beer Milk, Coffee Milk, Mint Milk...to name a few! Did we mention Cajun Cheese curds too? Then you will meet a man who beat the odds...with very little help (and a lot of blood sweat and maybe tears) he saved a historic military building and opened a premiere American Civil War museum

10223 Ever seen a 'cod fish carry'? Or perhaps the 'International Great Lobster Crate Race'? Well, Jann & Rodney will show you it all at the annual Lobster Fest in Rockland, Maine. Then it's off to do some real Lobster fishing with a pro. Wonder who will catch the most...Rodney or Jann?! And finally, meet a man who is on a continuing mission to clean up a great American waterway, the Mighty Mississippi River. He recruits local volunteers, and together they remove tires, signs and all kinds of bizarre junk from the water.

10206 ‘Just may be the best hot fudge in this solar system or any other!’ In 1908 Angelo Lagomarcino, an immigrant from Northern Italy, founded his confectionery in a small American town and has been getting rave reviews like that one ever since! Learn alongside Rodney the old European art of ‘casting chocolate eggs’. Then, go inside Whitey’s Ice Cream where many industry innovations were born like the high-powered malt machine, candy bar milkshakes, and chocolate chip cookie dough ice cream.

10224

They've been inducted into the National Hall of Fame and have been a favorite building toy for nearly 100 years. Rodney and Jann celebrate the return of Lincoln Log manufacturing in America by visiting the company that makes them. Then, it's an insider's tour and some hands on help in a small but mighty guitar shop that would make any acoustic aficionado drool. And meet two college friends who are changing the lives of children by educating, engaging and empowering them! They were also winners of a Chick-fil-A Foundation's True Inspiration Award.