

50 Years With Peter Paul and Mary

Brother, Can You Spare A Dime - Five Hundred Miles - If I Had My Way
The First Time I Ever Saw Your Face - Early Mornin' Rain - Puff, The Magic Dragon
Blowin' In the Wind - The Great Mandela - I Dig Rock And Roll Music
There But For Fortune - El Salvador - Day Is Done
No Easy Walk To Freedom - Where Have All The Flowers Gone - Sweet Survivor
Leaviing On A Jet Plane - Don't Laugh At Me - We Shall Not Be Moved
One Light, Many Candles (One & Many Reprise) - Tell It On The Mountain

50 Years With Peter Paul and Mary

An astonishing look at the iconic folk trio's music and career.

It unearths rare and previously unseen 1960s footage, along with their best performances and most popular songs at the peak of their artistry.

This is Peter, Paul and Mary ...

They launched the soundtrack of a generation, and proved that the power of music could change the world forever.

From Greenwich Village to Occupy Wall Street.

The American Civil Rights and anti-Viet Nam War movements launched five decades of passionate advocacy and music.

Their legacy continues to inspire new generations worldwide.

This is the definitive celebration and examination of their music and lasting impact.

Produced and directed by multi-Emmy® winner Jim Brown

58 Minutes HD
Color and B/W 16:9

THE TELEVISION SYNDICATION COMPANY, INC.
Cassie M. Yde, President
Phone: 1.407.788.6407

cassie@tvSCO.com
Fax: 1.407.788.4397

www.TVSCO.com